LOCAL MATTERS.

PROBABLE FATAL STABBING AFFRAY .- Be-

negro men named Robert Brown and Aleck, during which Brown was stabbed in the left side with a sailors' knife, inflicting a serious if not fatal wound by Aleck. The fight, it is stated, grew out of a quarrel about some of the females living near Cash

Corner. A dispatch was sent from the First police-station, where the wounded man was taken, to the city almshouse, and the ambu-

Dr. Brittan accompanied the ambulance, dressed Brown's wounds, and carried him out to the almshouse. Up to midnight Aleck were in search of him. He was reported to be an employé on the schooner "Seventy-Seven," loading granite on the south side of

MORE TROUBLE BETWEEN BOYS-NARROW

ESCAPE FROM DEATH .- An epidemic of evil passions seems to be raging among the boys.

They are not satisfied to quarrel and then to fight it out with their fists in old-fashioned style, but have taken to using weapons, with deadly effect. Two homicides and a same order was brought to light in an examination before the Police Justice. Lewis t at Johnson, but it missed its aim.

only punished him by eight hours in jail.

Police-Justice White on Saturday morning heard further evidence in the case of Mr.

Thomas J. Beal, charged with measuring lumber without having obtained the proper license from the city authorities. Mr. Beal presenting the case to his Honor arguments were made by Mr. E. Carrington Cabell in behalf of two licensed measurers, and by Mr.

Whitlock for the accused. Justice White promptly rendered his decision, in which he recited the fact that there some time ago existed a city ordinance compelling all lumber, except such as was cut to order, to be inspected and measured, and returns of the same made by the surveyor or inspector.

This ordinance had been repealed. There is now no such law, and no such officer as surveyor or inspector. Inspectors are licensed to do business just as grocers, doctors, lawyers, and others are, and, like them, are liable to a class-tax. They are candidates for public patronage; they hang out their signs to them. They cannot say to you "I demand to inspect your lumber-it is my right." Still, the Police Justice was of opinion that when any one was employed to measure lumber it should be a licensed measurer.

It was not denied that a lumber-dealer, or a bona fide and regularly-salaried employe, could measure lumber for that dealer, but other persons should get out a license. He required Mr. Beal to get out a license. That the decision was, therefore, perfectly satis-

I. O. R. M. Richmand Dispatch, GREAT COUNCIL OF THE UNITED STATES.

FIFTH DAY'S SESSION.

Great Incohonee Lindsay at 9 A. M. Saturday called the Great Council to order, and proceeded to business. USE OF THE SEAL.

Representative Baker, of Penusylvania, presented the following, which was adopted: That the resolution relative to seals be altered or construed so as to allow the impression to be printed upon circulars, notices, or other printed communications.

DECISIONS.

The Great Incohonce, in answer to representative Stussel, of Mo., decided the following questions in the affirmative: Is it lawful for a Tribe to grant a travelling card to a member to continue in force after the thirtyfirst sun of the hunting moon? Has a tribe the right to grant a travelling card to a member for a longer period than six moons?

A BADGE. On motion of Representative Lee, of Mas sachusetts, a resolution was adopted authortween 10 and 11 o'clock on Saturday night a lizing a distinguishing badge for the Great difficulty occurred on Cary street, between Mishinewa, and to define his duties and lo-Seventeenh and Eighteenth, between two cate his position in the wigwam.

> SECRET SESSION. At 10 o'clock the Great Council went into secret session, when the unwritten work was duly and properly exemplified. LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Representative Edwards, of Tennessee.

was granted leave of absence for the remainder of the session. The remainder of the session was principally occupied in the discussion of committee reports, which were not proper to make public. The usual resolutions of thanks were had not been arrested, although the police adopted for courtesies received, and then the Great Council adjourned to meet in Philadelphia in 1876. THE CITY IN DARKNESS .- Sometime ago the Committee on Ligut passed a resolution directing the proper officer to have the gas lighted in the street lamps dark and cloudy nights, no matter whether the moon ought to shine or not. This order is certainly being ignored, for if ever there was a necessity for its fulfilment that necessity arose Satwhich in their frenzy they sometimes handle urday night, when cloud, rain, and darkness ruled supreme, and our people had to grope cutting affair, which latter luckily did not their way homeward or otherwise to the best of their ability. A word to the wise is sufficient, and we hope this grievance may be remedied in future. POLICE-COURT ITEMS .- There were three

Thornton Carter, witty and rock, and thereby nearly terminating Johnpenitent, told the old story of his misfortune son's terrestrial career. Young Johnson, a handsome and honest-looking boy, told the and weakness, and begged off; Ben. Bowles, a Hanover farmer, was surly but yet not un-interesting; and Pat. Page, who said he was story which, in the main, was corroborated by most of the other witnesses. Johnson rea "big man here in Richmond," and that he ceived an intimation that Williams was across " had three lawyers to defend him," appeared ing if he did he would whip him. After being two or three times informed of this Johnson went to where Williams was, and "told him be would knock him down; he was a saucy boy." Thereupon some blows passed. Williams picked up a rock and threw it is a Laborate late to suppose the following the late of the late and the was not expected of him especially can be a supposed. occasions he has liberally contributed to the liams then fled into his mother's porch, and city treasury. Carter said to the Justice about as he reached it Johnson threw at him, but Bowles, "Ob, he is an old friend of mine; first without harm. As Johnson was going offence; let him off." But as Bowles had viooff Williams threw a large rock at him, striklated the ordinance by sleeping on a marketing him plumb on the left ear, knocking him bench in addition to getting drunk, he was fined $1. The three erring ones mirched rock struck the temple instead of the ear inforth from the court-room with uncertain stantaneous death would no doubt have been steps, and at the door Carter solemnly inquired, "When shall we three meet again?" Owing to the infantile years of the accused Jerry Reid, the colored man with two Williams), and the further fact that he was wives, - one that he married when both were under provocation when he threw the rock, Justice White dealt with him mercifully, and slaves, and one that he married under a license issued by the clerk of the Hustings Court in July-by his counsel, waived an examination, and was sent on to the Hustings Court for indictment for bigamy. The question will arise, if he is indicted, whether the act of Assembly of 1866 '67, which attempts to validate and render legal marriages be tween slaves, is constitutional. Jerry Reid will probably go down to posterity-in the law books, at least.

Accident .- Two of Bossieux & Co.'s drivers were reported Saturday evening for driving faster than the city ordinance allows. They were driving at a rapid rate from Broad to Leigh streets, by way of Seventh, and when between Marshall and Clay streets collided with Mrs. McGee's milk wagon. throwing her out and damaging the vehicle not a little.

FOLEY'S STATUE OF JACKSON .- Foley's statue of Stonewall Jackson, which will arrive here from Baltimore in a day or two, will be escorted from the wharf to the Capitol Square by the First Regiment, Colonel Bradley T. Johnson, and at the Capitol Square delivered to the Governor. It is to be hoped that and seek business; nobody is bound to go employers will make arrangements to allow members of the regiment to turn out to do honor to the occasion.
